Cultural Arts: Day trip to Orihuela

The recent reopening of the Fundacion Pedrera museum is an opportunity to view some of the finest Spanish painting from the 19th century. The exhibition takes up 6 rooms which are divided into themes, and contains 60 pieces by renowned artists, including Sorolla. There is also a small chapel with copies of religious artwork over the walls and across the vaulted ceiling. You may also wish to take the opportunity to visit the Colegio de Santo Domingo, the Cathedral, and the Episcopal Palace which houses an exhibition of religious art - the old town of the city was declared an Historical Artistic Site in 1969 and it shelters a multitude of monuments. Take a picnic or have a leisurely lunch sitting outside in one of the picturesque plazas!

Participants will be given a "Walking Tour Guide with map" to the main points of interest to enhance your visit. The route is level walking, apart from steps to enter the cathedral, churches and historic buildings, and the sites are within a comfortable walking distance, with café bars en route.

Coach 1:

Depart: 08.00 hrs outside Interiors, Javea port (please park further up the road and not directly outside Interiors).

Coach 2:
